 STANDARD FRAUD WARNING: Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and may subject such person to criminal and substantial civil penalties. (This wording does not apply in Oregon.) FLORIDA: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree. NEW JERSEY: Any person who includes any false or misleading information on an application for an insurance policy is guilty of insurance fraud and is subject to criminal and civil penalties. VIRGINIA: It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits. The undersigned hereby applies for insurance coverage as set forth in the application and affirms that the statements and representations made are to the best of his/her knowledge true.
I understand that the insurance being applied for, if accepted by the Company, will be based on the statements made in this application. If information is withheld or falsely stated, any insurance issued may be subject to rescission or modification as provided by the law of the state in which the application was accepted or the policy issued.
